TERSE TALES OF THE TOWN

Cathlamet Improvements—

A. S. Lee is establishing grades and making surveys for the various streets and sewers are to be installed in Cathlamet this summer.

Police Court—

Two frequenters of the flowing bowl overindulged on Sunday and faced Judge Anderson yesterday afternoon were fined $5 or two days each.

Licensed to Wed—

County Clerk Clinton yesterday issued a wedding license in favor of Mr. Wayland L. Root, of Spokane, Wash., and Miss Louise W. Healy, of this county.

Tomorrow's Reception—

Mrs. Jennie Bussey has tendered the use of her pretty Franklin avenue home to the teachers of the city in behalf of the Institute reception, and the same will be held there tomorrow evening, and will no doubt be thronged.

Change at St. Mary's—

The Misses Elizabeth Hendry and Fitzpatrick, nurses at the hospital, left for Portland on the morning train Sunday, and the Misses Marguerite McKinnon and Lucille Petrie have arrived to take the places of the two that left. Miss Beth Darling leaves at the end of the week for Portland also.

Accused of Cruelty—

Henry Henderson, J. Petersen and H. Hakensen were summoned before Justice J. P. Goodman yesterday on a charge of cruelty toward a dumb animal, a white horse, the property of Augusta Norman, the acts complained of having taken place on Sunday last. The case was set for trial sometime today.

Illegal Fishing—

Water Bailiff Settem found it necessary yesterday to arrest two fishermen by names of John Mustik and Fred Olsen, for violating the fishing laws, the scene of the offense being Young's River. Mustik pleaded guilty and was promptly fined $50, and costs, and Olsen sent for an attorney and his case will probably be heard tomorrow.

Back From the South—

Miss Ruby Crohn, who has been in Southern California in behalf of her health for several months past, has returned to her Astoria home, accompanied by her father, Herman Crohn, the well known merchant who went south to visit her some weeks ago. Miss Crohn's health is none the worse for her trip south, and she is infinitely happy to be back at home, and her friends are glad to have her with them once more.

New Baby at Knappa—

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Hovelund, of Knappa, are the parents of a little daughter that arrived Sunday morning.

Buying Real Estate—

W. D. Field and L. Flossom, the Boise promoters, have invested $12,000 in land belonging to the Taylor estate and were in Seaside as guests of Judge Taylor looking over the grounds on Sunday.

School Census—

Superintendent Clark of the city schools is at work taking the school census, starting in the Aderbrook district first. The schools are not in session this week owing to the teachers' institute which begins on Wednesday and ends Friday.

Sunday Fire—

The fire department was called to 348 Twenty-second street Sunday afternoon and extinguished a blaze that caused $25 damage. The receiving apparatus at chemical No. 1 was out of order and caused a run of several blocks in the wrong direction before the mistake was discovered.

Has Gone To Portland—

Dr. Moorehouse, pastor of the Congregational church, left up on the evening train for Portland yesterday, to attend the Portland Association of Congregational churches. Dr. Moorehouse will read a paper before the association on Wednesday morning. Mrs. Moorehouse will accompany him to the city.

Off For Home—

Rev. R. F. Lash and wife, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Bussing and daughter-in-law, Mrs. M. I. Lash, since last November, will leave out tonight on the Lurline for St. Johns where, after a short visit, with another daughter, will leave for their home near Wakita, Okla. They have spent some two years and a half in Oregon and are much impressed with the country and climate.

ASTORIA AT YUKON EXPOSITION

COLONY OF OHIO DUNKARDS WILL ARRIVE ON AN EXCURSION IN A SHORT TIME.

The Seattle Times of Saturday has the following to say:

"J. H. Whyte, manager of the Astoria Chamber of Commerce, has written Henry E. Reed, director of exploitation, that it is the intention of the people of that seaport to have an extensive exhibit at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition. Whyte points out in his letter that since the railroad deal of last week Astoria is the Oregon Pacific terminus of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern railroads and that with Harriman rapidly completing his road to the port will become one of great importance in trade and commerce.

"Astoria will build a sea wall in the near future which will not be excelled even by the sea wall at Galveston, Texas, for the purpose of straightening the shore line and to enable railroads and manufacturers to enjoy immunity from tides."

The Exposition is to be held in 1909 and it is Manager Whyte's intention to make the most of this opportunity.

Manager Whyte received several requests for literature from various persons yesterday. The Rev. I. Frantz, intends bringing a Dunkard excursion of some 1250 persons to Portland and should they find desirable land it is very likely that a new colony will be started. The Dunkards are coming from Pleasant Hill, Ohio, and will come to the coast in special trains.

John J. Alexander, of Leavenworth, Kansas, and Rev. R. T. Lash, of Hurley, Oklahoma, were other inquirers after literature and information concerning Astoria.

Manager Whyte returned after looking over the ground at Seaside and expressed the opinion that much good can be done by the two cities cooperating and that a meeting will be held in the near future to formulate the plans for such a movement.

Ill In New York—

Demitrie Pascola, a former resident of Clifton, who recently started to return to Greece, was taken ill in New York and is not expected to live.

Elks' Meeting—

A regular meeting of the Elks will be held this evening. The report of the building committee will be submitted and all members are requested to be present. J. C. McCue, exalted ruler; J. C. Clinton, secretary.

Change of Program—

"Roanoke," the new bill at the Astoria theater last night, was kindly received by a well-filled house. The play is on the order of the comedy-drama and is exciting and interesting as well as funny. The comedy is interjected at just the right moments to relieve the tension of the drama and the whole piece is exceedingly well played by this excellent company whose managers have decided to make their stay in Astoria indefinite. The scenes are laid in Virginia and the tone is decidedly southern in its makeup. The old colored Mammy is well played by the star, George Howard, and the title role is in the hands of the capable Miss Marquam, whose wild, yet sweet, and birdlike, Roanoke is the hit of the show. The Murphy brothers are right at home in this offering of the Howard-Dorset Stock Company as they are from Kentucky, so it is no trouble at all for them to render the smooth southern drawl which lends so much atmosphere to a play of this character. Miss Betty Jonson, simply cannot be anything but sweet and sympathetic no matter what it is, and it isn't very long before the audience is dead in love with her charming half hesitating, little lisp and drawl. "Roanoke" will run until Thursday, when Nat Goodwin's success, "The Nominee," will be the next attraction.

To Property Owners—

The undersigned for ourselves and those we represent are willing to buy and pay for property in this vicinity to the value of $1,000, to $100,000, or several pieces of property of various kinds, business property, or lots or acreage, but we must have fair prices and will not under any circumstances pay profits to land grabbers who have no bona fide intentions, but who have tied up desirable property on contract and expect new-comers to pay them enormous and unfair advances on same. If you want to sell and will offer us a fair deal, address L. L. Folsom or W. D. Field, care of F. N. Clark, Astoria, Oregon.
